

A native of Las Vegas and current resident of mile-high Denver, Rachel Berman has been profoundly Deaf since birth and prides herself as being Bilingual/Bicultural in both English and ASL. She is currently a senior lecturer at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley and has 8 years of teaching experience. She holds a B.A. degree in Communication Sciences from the University of Arizona, an M.A. in Communication Sciences from Gallaudet University and an M.A. in Teaching American Sign Language from the University of Northern Colorado. She is an active member of the Deaf Community and has served the community in many capacities. At Gallaudet, she served as a Vice President of the Graduate Student Association. More recently, she managed "ASL Slam Denver," which hosted a monthly poetry slam. When Rachel is not at the University, she teaches ASL at several companies and works as an ASL Stage Coach -- assisting Deaf actors with script translation. In her free time, she enjoys going to SUP (stand-up paddleboarding) travel, cooking, hiking, skiing, and reading.
