

Susan C. Searls

Education

BA, Psychology - Social Work, Gallaudet University

MA, Elementary Education of the Deaf, Gallaudet University

Certificate, School District Administrator, School Administrator/Supervisor, State University of New York

Short Biography:

Susan C. Searls is the Director of Early Childhood Programs at the Rochester School for the Deaf. Susan started her career in 1978 as an elementary teacher and has been involved with deaf children in many different capacities over the years. She is the proud mother of two adult children, Davin and Lauren.

Susan served on the American Society for Deaf Children Board in the 1990's. She and her husband, JMatt co-chaired the 16th Biennial ASDC Convention in Rochester in 1998. Susan has recently re-joined the ASDC Board in 2014.