

Jeffrey S. Bravin

Education

BA, Government, Gallaudet University

MS, Deaf Education, McDaniel College

MS, School Administration and Supervision, Queens College.

Short Biography:

Jeffrey S. Bravin is currently employed at the American School for the Deaf in West Hartford, CT as Chief Operating Officer/Assistant Executive Director. Prior to assuming this role, Jeff was the Director of Special Projects focused on the coordination and logistics of the renovations of American School for the Deaf's main building, Gallaudet Hall as well as ASD's PrintWorks as part of ASD's Technology Center. Jeff's role also includes supervising Information Technology Services, Security, Sign Language and Interpreting Services, as well as Isola Bella Summer Camp. Jeff also assist in fund development, special events and public relations strategies, including managing alumni relations. Before coming to the American School for the Deaf, Jeff was employed at the Lexington School for the Deaf in Jackson Heights, NY as their High School Social Studies Teacher, Deaf Resource Center Specialist and the final three years as their Associate Director of Development and External Affairs. Jeff also currently serves as Board for Conference of Educational Administrators of Schools & Programs for the Deaf, member of Advisory Board for State of Connecticut Department of Rehabilitation Services – Deaf and Hard of Hearing Programs, Board of American Society of Deaf Children, former Board of Directors for the National Theatre of the Deaf and serves as American School for the Deaf representative for Connecticut Council on Organizations Serving the Deaf.

Jeff has served on the ASDC Board since 2008.