

Michael Luna is the Chief for the Work Services Section with the California Department of Developmental Services which focuses on programs dedicated to assisting people with intellectual and developmental disabilities find competitive wage jobs and oversees the Foster Grandparent/Senior Companion Program through Senior Corps, a program where senior citizen volunteer to assist and mentor children and adults with developmental disabilities . Michael's previous work included being the manager for the Office for Special Services with the California Department of Social Services that oversaw two programs; The Office of Deaf Access and the Office of Services for The Blind, and worked as a Client Advocate for NorCal Services for Deaf and Hard of Hearing, specializing in IEP advocacy. Michael's wife is Hard of Hearing and he is a proud Step-father to 3 children, two of which attend DHH programs.