

Timothy Frelich

Timothy, serving as a treasurer for the ASDC since 2008, is one of 9 deaf children born to deaf parents in North Dakota. Graduated from North Dakota School for the Deaf, Timothy achieved his BA in Psychology, MA in School Counseling, and several PhD courses in Administration & Management from Gallaudet University. All siblings went to the same university.

Timothy, now working as Business Services & Enrollment manager at the Laurent Clerc National Deaf Education Center, has 40 years of experience in Academics, Athletics, Student Development, and Student Life, and many as an administrator. All siblings have and had different careers, with oldest sister, Phyllis as an actress. Timothy is father of two grown daughters, who are now in field of health and wellness.

Very engaged in sports, Timothy has coached basketball for a total of 28 years, of which 22 years are with the Model Secondary School for the Deaf, a high school in Washington, DC. His current favorite hobbies are genealogy, and outdoor activities.